Cantor Richard Botton, Cantor Emeritus of Central Synagogue in NYC, will present a musical reverie with Ladino songs from his Sephardic heritage. This informative program will present Ladino music and culture with songs, stories, history and reflections. Special arrangements and accompaniment will be provided by HUC-JIR's Artist-in Residence Joyce Rosenzweig.

Living Ladino is part of an ongoing initiative at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion to integrate Sephardic Studies into its curriculum and to increase exposure to Sephardic history and traditions. Support for the initiative has been provided by The Maurice Amado Foundation
